

How to use this: Print one sheet per school and fill it out right after the visit, in the car or over lunch, before the details fade. Both of you should contribute: students notice energy and social fit; parents notice cost, logistics, and whether the school feels realistic. Using the same sheet every time is what makes schools easy to compare later.

School: _____ Date: _____

Who attended: _____

Visit type: ☐ Campus tour ☐ Info session ☐ Department visit ☐ Virtual ☐ Accepted-student day

1. Academics & Program Fit

Intended major offered? What did you learn about class sizes, advising, research? How easy is it to switch or explore majors?

2. Campus Feel & Student Life

Right size? What was the energy like: lively, quiet, welcoming? Housing, dining, student spaces? Did your student seem energized or indifferent?

3. Affordability & Financial Aid

Anything new on merit scholarships or aid? Have you run the net price calculator? Does the cost feel realistic? Extra costs to consider?

4. Student Reaction (In Their Own Words)

Ask in the car: Can you picture yourself here for four years? What was the best thing about today? What made you hesitate?

5. Follow-Up & Open Questions

What questions went unanswered? Anyone to contact for more information? Does your student want to visit again or attend a specific event?

6. Bottom Line

After this visit, this school: ☐ Moved up ☐ Stayed the same ☐ Moved down ☐ Coming off the list

One-sentence summary: _____
